Dec 17th 1864

Order
No. 20

It having become apparent to the Col. Commanding the Regiment, that the men are becoming neglectful of their duty, as their time of service draws to a close. It is hereby ordered that any man found violating any military order, or making light of any military duty, shall be punished to the full extent of the law - That is, close confinement, during the remainder of his term of service, on Bread and water. Every effort has been made to effect a speedy muster out of the men, but, as it has so far failed, it is expected that each man will do his duty, as a soldier, if not the strictest military discipline will be enforced. It is hoped that each officer is well enough acquainted with military duty, to detect and quell with the severest punishment, any signs of mutiny.
